Notice of Lawsuit and Request for Waiver of Service of Summons

TO: Google Legal Support, DMCA Complaints

1600 Amphitheater Rd, Mountain View, CA 94043

A lawsuit has been commenced against you (or the entity on whose behalf you are addressed). A copy of the complaint is attached to this notice. It has been filed in the United States District Court for the Ninth District and has been assigned docket number _____

This is not a formal summons or notification from the court, but rather my request that you sign and return the enclosed waiver of service in order to save the costs of serving you with a judicial summons and an additional copy of the complaint. The cost of service will be avoided if I receive a signed copy of the waiver within 30 days after the date designated below as the date on which this Notice and Request is sent. I enclose a stamped and addressed envelope (or other means of cost-free return) for your use. An extra copy of the waiver is also attached for your records.

If you comply with this request and return the signed waiver, it will be filed with the court and no summons will be served on you. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, except that you will not be obligated to answer the complaint before 60 days from the date designated below as the date on which this notice is sent (or before 90 days from that date if your address is not in any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will take appropriate steps to effect formal service in a manner authorized by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and will then, as authorized by those Rules, ask the court to require you (or the party on whose behalf you are addressed) to pay the full costs of such service. In that connection, please read the statement concerning the duty of parties to waive the service of the summons, which is set forth on the reverse side (or at the foot) of the waiver form.

I affirm that this request is being sent to you on behalf of the plaintiff, this 3 day of October, 2009.

Waiver of Service of Summons

TO: Google Legal Support

I acknowledge receipt of your request that I waive service of a summons in the action of Anthony M. Benjamin Sr. vs. Google Inc. which is case number _____ in the United States District Court for the Ninth District _____. I have also received a copy of the complaint in the action, two copies of this instrument, and a means by which I can return the signed waiver to you without cost to me.

I agree to save the cost of service of a summons and an additional copy of the complaint in this lawsuit by not requiring that I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) be served with judicial process in the manner provided by Rule 4.

I (or the entity on whose behalf I am acting) will retain all defenses or objections to the lawsuit or to the jurisdiction or venue of the court except for objections based on a defect in the summons or in the service of the summons.

I understand that a judgment may be entered against me (or the party on whose behalf I am acting) if an answer or motion under Rule 12 is not served upon you within 60 days after 10/5/2009, or within 90 days after that date if the request was sent outside the United States.

Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons

Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defendant who, after being notified of an action and asked to waive service of a summons, fails to do so will be required to bear the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the waiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a court that lacks jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or even its person or property. A party who waives service of the summons retains all defenses and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or to the place where the action has been brought.

A defendant who waives service must (within the time specified on the waiver form) serve on the plaintiff's attorney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a response to the complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer or motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against the defendant, by waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summons has been actually served when the request for waiver of service was received.

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 4 of 27

1 Plaintiff Anthony M. Benjamin Sr., doing business as A M Benjamin Service (collectively, "Plaintiffs"),
 2 by and for their Complaint against Defendants Google Inc. ("Google") (all collectively, "Defendants"),
 3 aver as follows:

 5 Introduction

 7 01. Google infringed on my copyrighted manual, "The Magic Signature Act", by publishing the entire story
 8 on the Internet without my permission.

 10 02. In February 2009 I uploaded "The Magic Signature Act" to Google Book Partners hoping to get some free advertising but later had the request removed because as a current member of Google Book Partner Search
 11 I knew they revealed to many pages of the books on the internet and the information and ideas in this book
 12 was too valuable to me to be given away for free.

13
 14 03. In late August 2009, I seen on my Google Partner Listing page that the Magic Signature Act was in a pending status,
 15 but before the book could be listed I specifically requested that I only wanted the book listed if I could choose
 16 the pages that was to be listed on the internet and I wanted none of the work to be downloaded.

 18 04. Without my formal permission, in act of insensitive cruelty Google published on the Internet my 19 entire manual of "The Magic Signature Act" giving away my entire book for free infringing on my 20 rights as an author and publisher.

23     05. Google violated the three elements of copyright infringement in (1) I had a valid copyright (2) Google
24     had access to the manual and (3) the duplication of the work was outside of the exception.

26 06. Based on information from a Google book report, my manual "The Magic Signature Act was viewed 27 10 times in a week of September 2009 and 389 pages viewed; the entire manual is 212 pages.

29      07. Google infringed on my copyright work by listing the book on the without my proper ISBN # or Copyright #,
30      documented by the number listed on my page views findings.

32 08. Google infringement has harmed my work and ideas by giving away my ideas that took to years to develop
33 for free. I am requesting statutory damages as prescribed by the U S Copyright Act.

35 09. Enclosed in this package is

36 (1) cease and desist letter to Google Inc
37 (2) emails from - (05 pages) Google acknowledging removal of "The Magic Signature Act" from 38 Google's book list and other communications
39 (3) my copyright registration for the "The Magic Signature Act" from the Library of Congress
40 (4) email to Google Inc requesting statutory damages
41 (5) email from Google showing books was view 10 and 389 pages viewed
42 (6) listing of my personal books on Google Book Search with "The Magic Signature Act"
43 (7) Google Legal Department Fax Confirmation
44 (8) copyright acknowledgement status 9-12-09 (8) (9)

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

48      09. This is a civil action is a complaint for copyright infringement and seeking statutory damages for 49      copyright infringement under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et

PLAINTIFFS AND PLAINTIFFS' BUSINESSES

64 13. Plaintiff Anthony M. Benjamin Sr., DBA as A. M. Benjamin Services, a sole proprietor, is a publisher of Ebooks on a 65 arts and business consulting in San Francisco, California.

DEFENDANTS AND THE INFRINGING Google Book Partner

14. Defendant Google Inc., a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Mountain View, California.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

15. Under Section 106 of the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. (the "Copyright Act"), Plaintiffs have the distinct, severable, and exclusive rights to, among other things, reproduce, publicly perform, and publicly display their copyrighted works. 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1), (2), (3).

CLAIMS FOR RELIEF*COUNT 01*(Direct Copyright Infringement – Public Display)

16. Defendants, without the permission or consent of Plaintiffs, publicly made available the entire works of the copyrighted material "The Magic Signature Act". Defendants' conduct constitutes direct infringement of Plaintiffs' exclusive rights under the Copyright Act to publicly display copyrighted literary and artistic works.

17. The Plaintiff consider the Defendants act willful and intentional because Google listed my book information with wrong ISBN number and remove a list of other services and articles I had listed in another book program.

18. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' infringement of Plaintiffs' copyrights and exclusive rights under copyright, 17 U.S.C. § 504 (c), the Plaintiff is entitled to the statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), Plaintiffs shall be entitled to their actual damages plus Defendants' profits from infringement, as will be decided by a judge in the district court.

COUNT 02*(Inducement of Copyright Infringement)

19. Defendant users have infringed Plaintiffs' rights in their registered copyrighted works by allowing the authors work to be read on the internet without payment. Google readers who have the Plaintiffs copyrighted work indirectly infringed users are therefore directly infringing Plaintiffs' exclusive rights of reproduction, public performance, and public display under 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1), (4) and (5).

101 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 103 1. For a declaration that Defendants' Google Inc service willfully infringes Plaintiffs' copyrights both directly and indirectly whether now in existence or hereafter created.
- 105 2. For statutory damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c). Alternatively, at Plaintiffs' election, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), for actual damages.
- 107 3. For Plaintiffs' costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.
- 108 4. For pre- and post-judgment interest according to law.
- 109 5. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

U S Copyright Pending - LOC Document Attachment

In an act of senseless care personal rights, Google Book Partner Search published on the internet my entire book "The Magic Signature Act - A Spiritual Journey into the Worlds of Names, Lines and Shapes without my permission.

After first uploading the book to Google Partner Search in February of 2009, I requested it be temporarily removed from their listing because I did not like the way Google enter pages from the book.

After seeing Google had the book listed on the internet with no information I made a request to Google to list some information on the book, but only the pages I wanted listed.

In an act of senseless cruelty, Google Book Search Partner, without my permission listed the entire book "The Magic Signature Act" on the internet at:

[http://books.google.com/books?id=ncz-OfpnM0gC&dq=the+magic+signature+act&printsec=frontcover&source=bl&ots=gslbHNU8\_S&sig=4\_POaLMmF6suZiYokW9RIHdZZGg&hl=en&ei=ToqhSuvOKI7uswOQ28iNDw&sa=X&oi=book\_result&ct=result&resnum=8#v=onepage&q=&f=false ]

Listing my entire book on the Internet minimized my chances of finding other chances of finding publishers and buyers because they listed the entire book on the internet.

The book is the results of over 20 years of research, interviews and editing material, and for Google Book Partner Search to give it away for nothing is a crime.

For reason I am not certain, Google Book Partner Search violated my copyright privileges.

The new class action suit by Google in regard to authors and publishers rights say that both groups have the right to decide which pages will be published on the internet.

Google Book Partner search was so negligent to list the book online without the proper ISBN #.

What compensation do I deserved for the infringement of my copyrights for my book.

As of today, September 9, 2009 I am demanding "The Magic Signature Act" be taken off the internet and only republished after I tell you pages I want published in your Google Book Partner Search.

I believe you have willfully infringed my rights under 17 U.S.C. Section 101 et seq. and could be liable for statutory damages as high as $150,000 as set forth in Section 504(c)(2) therein.

If I do not have a response from Google by 9/16/2009; I will file a lawsuit in federal court.

Hello Anthony,

Thank you for your reply, and I apologize for any frustration you may be feeling. You're welcome to change the browsable percentage for your title from it's current setting to 20% by following these steps:

- (1) Login to your account from <http://books.google.com/partner/login> .
- (2) Click on the 'Books' tab of your account.
- (3) Locate 'The Magic Signature Act' in your book list and click on the pencil icon.
- (4) On the 'Modify Book Settings' page, click on the Browsable Percentage drop-down menu and choose the browsable percentage you desire.
- (5) Click the 'Save & Continue' button to save your changes.

Please reply to this email if you have any problems with the process above, or if you'd like to remove your book from the program.

Sincerely,

Yoko
The Google Books Team

The Magic Signature Act should of been listed as 09764590654 Instead of 68Z5BLKFFEB

My interpretation of 100% no load was none of the book was to be published on the Internet.

I sent Google a memo stating I only wanted part of my copyright book on the Internet only if I could decide what pages would be published.

Google Book partners search infringed on my copyrighted work.
I have proof the Magic Signature Act was view at least 10 times and 389 pages were viewed.
Your published the book without proper authorization, the book search partner did not even list the correct ISBN or name the publisher right (A M Benjamin Services)

Now that Google exposed my copyrighted work to the general public without my proper authorization, I have to live in fear of someone else using my intellectual ideas without my benefit.

According to The Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, I am entitled to monetary damages for your infringement.

Removing my copyrighted work acknowledges your infringement.
The web page views proves it was viewed and 20 years of hard work developing the theories was given away for free when my publishing company is struggling for money.

Unless an offer for my damages is offer by the end of this week, I will filed charges against Google in Federal Court.
